The Nomination Committee Terms of Reference are approved as at 25 November 2021.

1. Objectives

- 1.1 The Nomination Committee (Committee) is a Sub-Committee of the Board of Capita plc (Company) and has been established by the Board under the Articles of Association.
- 1.2 The purpose of the Committee is to identify and nominate, for the approval of the Board, candidates for Board vacancies as and when they arise and to keep under review the leadership needs of the organisation, both executive and non-executive, with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the organisation to compete effectively in the marketplace.
- 1.3 The Committee has authority to carry out ad hoc reviews as requested by the Board.

2. Role of the Committee

- 2.1 The Committee shall at all times comply with the Listing Rules issued by the Financial Conduct Authority and the recommendations of the UK Corporate Governance Code. Responsibility for nominations in respect of regulated firms resides with their boards or respective nomination committees, as applicable.
- 2.2 The Committee should carry out the duties below for the Company, major subsidiary undertakings and the group as a whole, as appropriate. In carrying out these duties, Committee members must comply with their duty under section 172 of the Companies Act 2006 to act in the way they consider, in good faith, would be most likely to promote the success of the Company for the benefit of its members as a whole, whilst having regard to the interests of employees, stakeholders and other matters as required by section 172.
- 2.3 The Committee shall:
 - (a) regularly review the structure, size and composition (including the skills, knowledge, experience, diversity and independence) of the Board and make recommendations to the Board with regard to any changes, having regard to the chair of the Board's vision for achieving the optimal Board composition and assessing periodically whether the desired outcome has been achieved;
 - (b) ensure plans are in place for orderly succession to both the Board and senior management positions, conduct a continuous and proactive process of planning and assessment and oversee the development of a diverse pipeline for succession, taking into account the challenges and opportunities facing the Company, and the skills and expertise needed on the Board and in senior management positions in the future;
 - (c) before any appointment is made by the Board, evaluate the balance of skills, knowledge, experience and independence on the Board, and, in the light of this evaluation, prepare a description of the role and capabilities required for a particular appointment. In identifying suitable candidates, the Committee shall:

- (i) use open advertising or the services of external advisers to facilitate the search, whilst having due regard to internal talent and capability;
 - (ii) agree the process to be undertaken to identify, sift and interview suitable candidates, ensuring that the interview process is conducted so that candidates with diverse backgrounds are not disadvantaged;
 - (iii) consider candidates from a wide range of backgrounds;
 - (iv) consider candidates on merit and against objective criteria and with due regard for the benefits of diversity (of gender, social and ethnic backgrounds, and cognitive and personal strengths) on the Board, taking care that appointees have sufficient time available to allocate to the position;
- (d) ensure that each proposed appointee to the Board is required to disclose the time commitments involved in any business or other interests which he has, including any business or other interests which could result in a conflict of interest for him as a member of the Board, and is required to seek prior approval of the Board before taking on any additional external appointments;
- (e) review annually the time required from non-executive directors and evaluate annually whether each non-executive director is spending sufficient time to fulfil his or her duties. Performance evaluation should be used to assess whether the non-executive directors are spending enough time to fulfil their duties;
- (f) consider whether to set limits on the number and scale of other appointments that Board members (and in particular the chair of the Board and other non-executives) may take on without compromising their effectiveness;
- (g) prepare, for the appointment of a chair of the Board, a job specification, including the time commitment expected and require that a proposed chair:
- (i) is independent (when assessed against the circumstances set out in the UK Corporate Governance Code);
 - (ii) must not be the current or previous chief executive of the Company (save in exceptional circumstances and following prior consultation with major shareholders); and
 - (iii) must disclose his or her other significant commitments to the Board before appointment and report any changes to the chair's commitments as they arise;
- (h) keep under review the leadership needs of the organisation, both executive and non-executive, with a view to ensuring the continued ability of the organisation to compete effectively in the marketplace;
- (i) keep up to date and fully informed about strategic issues and commercial changes affecting the Company and the market in which it operates;

- (j) take an active role in setting and meeting diversity objectives and strategies for the Company as a whole, and in monitoring the impact of diversity initiatives, together with an active interest in how talent is managed throughout the organisation;
- (k) review the results of the Board performance evaluation process that relate to the composition of the Board and succession planning;
- (l) ensure that on appointment to the Board, the chair and non-executive directors receive a formal letter of appointment (which must be made available for inspection) setting out clearly what is expected of them in terms of time commitment, committee service and involvement outside Board meetings;
- (m) ensure that the papers accompanying shareholders resolutions proposing to elect or re-elect each director set out the specific reasons why the contribution of each director is, and continues to be, important to the Company's long-term sustainable success; and
- (n) work and liaise as necessary with all other Board committees.

The Nomination Committee shall also make recommendations to the Board concerning:

- (o) formulating plans for succession for both the Board and senior management positions;
- (p) any changes needed to the succession planning process if its periodic assessment indicates the desired outcomes have not been achieved;
- (q) suitable candidates for Board positions;
- (r) membership of the Audit and Risk Committee and Remuneration Committee, and any other Board committees as appropriate, in consultation with the chairs of those committees;
- (s) the re-appointment of any non-executive director at the conclusion of their specified term of office having given due regard to their performance and ability to continue to contribute to the Board in the light of the knowledge, skills, experience, time commitment and independence required;
- (t) the re-election by shareholders of directors under the annual re-election provisions of the UK Corporate Governance Code or the retirement by rotation provision in the Company's articles of association, having due regard to their performance and ability and why their contribution is important to the company's long term sustainable success in the light of the skills, experience and knowledge required and the need for progressive refreshing of the board, taking into account the length of service of individual directors, the chair and the Board as a whole;
- (u) any matters relating to the continuation in office of any director at any time including the suspension or termination of service of an executive director as an employee of the Company subject to the provisions of the law and their service contract; and
- (v) the proposed appointment of any director to an executive position or to any other office with any group undertaking.

3. Membership

- 3.1 Appointments to the Committee shall be made by the Board. The Committee shall comprise at least 3 members, all of whom shall be directors of the Company and the majority of whom shall be independent non-executive directors.
- 3.2 Only members of the Committee have the right to attend Committee meetings. However, other directors and other individuals (including representatives of external advisers) may be invited to attend for all or part of any meeting as and when appropriate in the opinion of the chair of the Committee or the majority of its members.
- 3.3 Appointments to the Committee shall be for a period of up to 3 years (subject to the election and re-election provisions in the Company's constitution and in the UK Corporate Governance Code), which may be extended by no more than two further periods of up to 3 years each, provided the director concerned still satisfies the criteria (if he or she was to be a new member) for appointment to the Nomination Committee.¹

4. Chair and Quorum

- 4.1 The Board shall appoint the chair of the Committee who should be either the chair of the Board or an independent non-executive director. 5. Secretary

- 5.1 The Company Secretary or nominee shall act as the Secretary of the Committee. In conjunction with the Committee chair the Company Secretary will prepare an agenda for each meeting which shall be circulated in a timely manner in advance to all members of the Committee and attendees, together with any supporting papers. ¹ Boards will need to justify why they consider a non-executive director independent beyond nine years (from the date of their appointment as a director)

- 6.3 The Secretary shall ensure that each member of the Committee (and other attendee as appropriate) receives information and papers in a timely manner to enable proper consideration to be given to issues.
- 6.4 The Committee shall meet at least twice a year and otherwise as required.
- 6.5 Draft minutes of Committee meetings shall be circulated to all members of the Committee. Once approved, minutes should be circulated to all other members of the Board unless, exceptionally, it would be inappropriate to do so.

- 9.3 The Committee shall produce a report to be included in the Company's annual report about its work. The report shall in particular:
- (a) describe the process used in relation to appointments, its approach to succession planning and how both support developing a diverse pipeline of talent;
 - (b) describe how the board evaluation has been conducted, the nature and extent of an external evaluator's contact with the Board and individual directors, the outcomes and actions taken, and how it has or will influence Board composition;
