

Bower Cotton Hamilton and Capita – claiming compensation on mis-sold investments

Had a letter stating you may be eligible to claim under the Financial Service Compensation Scheme (FSCS)?

Capita Tracing are working on behalf of Bower Cotton Hamilton (BCH) to help people claim the compensation they deserve if they have been misinformed and mis-sold a financial product that is covered by the FSCS.

BCH's aim is to help you claim back money you may have lost, they have a no win, no fee claim process.

The most common reasons why shares are mis-sold are that the Stockbroker concerned:

- was trading as principal but failed to disclose this information
- did not adequately explain the risks
- failed to properly assess your financial circumstances
- did not identify that the investments were unsuitable for you
- gave you false or misleading information

For more information from BCH please log on here: www.bowercotton.co.uk/fscs

What to do next

Your letter contains a claim form to start your compensation process.

Please return this using our pre-paid envelope, ensuring the form is completed as fully as possible, relevant ID enclosed and the form has been signed.
